Probate

1. Probate – hourly rate with range of costs

The exact cost for the Probate work we undertake will depend ultimately on the individual circumstances of the matter. For example, if the estate is not complicated and for example, there is only one beneficiary and no property and limited assets to collect, costs will be at the lower end of the range. If there are multiple beneficiaries, a property and multiple bank accounts and other assets the costs will be at the higher end.

This information about the costs is for estates where:

- There is a valid will
- There is no more than one property
- There are no intangible assets
- There are no disputes between beneficiaries on division of assets. If disputes arise this is likely to lead to an increase in costs
- There is no inheritance tax payable and the executors do not need to submit a full account to HMRC
- There are no claims made against the estate and the estate does not include:

A business, farms, farmhouses or farmland, an interest in another estate, loans or mortgages payable to the deceased, foreign assets, assets held in trust, national Heritage assets or unlisted stocks and shares and control holdings.

Legal Fees and Disbursements: Note: Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as court fees. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process.	Applying for the grant, collecting and distributing the assets: This work will usually take between 12.5 and 25 hours work at between £218 and £255 per hour. The range of hourly rates applied will vary according to the seniority and qualifications of the people handling the probate. The fees could therefore be between £2500 and £3500 plus VAT So for example, if the work takes 10 hours to complete and the hourly rate of the person, handling the matter is £218 and £255, the legal fee charged will be £2,180 to £2,550 plus VAT.

Law Society Guidelines on Bills (probate):

Where appropriate, charges may consist of two elements:

(a) Hourly rate This should be an inclusive figure incorporating the fee earner's expense rate and any appropriate care and conduct uplift.

(b) Value element Account may be taken of the value of the Assets in the estate. In calculating the value element of the charge, the following approach may be helpful:

Consider the value, nature and number of assets:

It is usual to divide the estate (i.e. total value of the assets left after death) into two parts:

(i) The Deceased's residence The value of the deceased's home, or as much of it as he or she owned, if it was shared with another person. For example, where the property is jointly owned, the value is reduced by half.

(ii) Value of rest of the estate

Apply an appropriate percentage:

An appropriate percentage should be considered in the light of the circumstances of the case but the following may be helpful.

- Solicitor not acting as executor
Value of gross estate less residence 1%
Value of residence 0.5%
- Solicitors acting as sole executor or joint executor with another person
Value of gross estate less residence 1.5%
Value of residence 0.75%

The final figure should always be reviewed to ensure that the charges are fair and reasonable having regard to all circumstances.

High value estates:

When dealing with high value estates, consideration should be given to reducing the value element percentage charged in order to ensure that the overall level of charge is fair and reasonable. For general guidance on this point, see the case of Jemma Trust v Liptrott [2003] EWCA Civ 1476. The Court Appeal suggested an appropriate charging regime as set out in Appendix 3.

The Court of Appeal further noted that in the appropriate circumstances a regressive scale may need to be applied to the value element relating to the principle residence.

It is for practitioners to exercise their professional judgement as to whether or not to apply a value element when charging for the administration of an estate.
